

References

The following textbooks are provided to help you prepare for the Certified Professional Photography examination. The list is not all inclusive nor should it be considered as the only sources that should be reviewed. It merely provides you with a wide-range of textbooks that might assist with not only the examination, but with improving your photographic knowledge and skills.

Blair, Don & Cohen, Skip. Body Part's: Don Blair's Guide to Lighting and Posing. Marathon Press, Inc. 1999.

Blair, Don. The Portrait: Professional Techniques and Practices in Portrait Photography. Sterling Publishing Co. 1998.

Corbell, Tony. Basic Studio Lighting. Amphoto Books. Watson-Guption Publications. 2001.

Eiseman, Leatrice. Pantone Guide to Communicating Color. Graftix Press, Ltd. 2000.

Freeman, Michael. Image: Designing Effective Pictures. Amphoto Books. Watson-Guption Publications. 1988.

Freeman, Michael. Digital Photography Expert: Light and Lighting. Lark Publishing. 2003.

Freeman, Michael. The Complete Guide to Digital Photography. Silver Pixel Press. 2003.

Hedgecoe, John. Complete Photography Course. Simon & Schuster. 1985.

Hedgecoe, John. The Photographer's Handbook. Alfred A. Knopf, Inc. 1992.

Hunter and Fuqua. Light: Science and Magic. Focal Press Publications. 1997.

London, et al. Photography. Prentice Hall. 2005.

Smith, Jeff. Outdoor and Location Portrait Photography. Amherst Media. 2002

Stroebel, et al. Basic Photographic Materials and Processes. Focal Press. 2000.

Timacheff, Serge & Karlins, David. Digital Sports Photography. Wiley. 2005